

Leaving a Bequest to Family Focus

A bequest—a gift in your will—is simple and convenient. You can create a legacy through a bequest. Your bequest can be a specific dollar amount or a percentage of your estate.

Examples of types of bequests:

- Specific bequests are used to make a gift of a specific dollar amount or specific asset (such as securities, real estate, or personal property).
- Residuary bequests are used to give all or a portion of the remainder of your estate after payment of expenses and any specific amounts designed to another beneficiaries.

Including Family Focus in your will:

The following includes several examples of suggested bequest wording to benefit Family Focus. Each individual situation is unique; therefore, these examples include only some of the possible gift opportunities. To assist you with this important process we offer suggested wording below:

- Percentage of estate for unrestricted purposes:
“I give to Family Focus, Inc., a not-for-profit organization located in Chicago, IL, ___ % of the remainder of my estate for its general charitable purposes.”
- Percentage of estate for restricted purposes:
“I give to Family Focus, Inc., a not-for-profit organization located in Chicago, IL, ___ % of the remainder of my estate to ___ (specific program or endowment fund). The portion of this fund available for spending each year shall be used to ___. Contributions may be added at any time. If changed circumstances should at some future time make it impractical to continue administering funds for the purpose designated, then the Family Focus Board of Directors may re-designate the purpose, provided that the terms adhere as closely as possible to the original intent.”
- Specific amount for unrestricted purpose:
“I give to Family Focus, a not-for-profit organization located in Chicago, IL, the sum of $___ in cash (or ___ shares of ___ stock) to be used for its charitable purposes.”
- Specific amount for specific purpose:
“I give, devise and bequeath to Family Focus, a not-for-profit organization located in Chicago, IL, the sum of $___ in cash or in-kind (or ___ shares of ___ stock) to be used for ___ at Family Focus. If changed circumstances should at some future time make it impractical to continue administering the funds for the purpose designated, then the Family Focus Board of Directors may re-designate the purpose, provided the terms adhere as closely as possible to my original intent.”
